

Plantation Police Department Social Media Terms of Use

The Plantation Police Department recognizes and embraces the right of all members of our online audience to free speech and freedom of expression. However, all social media platforms maintained by The Plantation Police Department are official forms of government communication. As such, sexually explicit language, discriminatory or belittling statements, bullying or badgering, trolling, threats, hate speech, or endorsements of services or products will not be tolerated.

Personal attacks of any kind, or offensive comments that target or disparage groups based on their age, ethnic, racial or gender composition, religious beliefs, sexual orientation or disability status, are prohibited. Comments advocating illegal activity or posting of material that violates copyrights or trademarks of others are also prohibited.

The Plantation Police Department reserves the right to exclude, block or ban any individual or entity posting any such prohibited comments on Plantation Police social media platforms, and to report such conduct to the social media hosting site.

Additionally, persons who post to our social media feeds are subject to the Terms of Service (TOS) of the host site. Information and/or graphic content (photos, videos, etc.) shared with or posted to an official Plantation Police Department social media page is also subject to the Terms of Service of the host site and may be used by the owners of the host site for their own purposes.
